SLATEMAKING ALDERMEN ARE HOMEWARD BOUND

The slatemaking six aldermen start for home today. On the long ride from Florida they will finish their work of lining up the council committees for the coming two years.

Three committees were decided on yesterday. They are:

Buildings—Pretzel, chairman, Anderson, Johnson, Klaus, McDonough, Ahren, Fick, Szymkowski, Powers, Link, Kaindi, Adamowski, Woodhull, Pegram and Adamkiewicz.

Schools, Fire, Police, Civil Service—Francis, chairman; Long, Klaus, Krumbiek, Touhy, Horne, Steffen, Adamowski, Kimball, Kennedy, Pegram, Byrne, Clark and O'Toole.

Railway Terminals—Healy, chairman; Kenna, Norris, Richert, Cross, McNichols, Haderlein, Walkowiak, Ellison, Bowler, Captain, Lipps, W. J. Lynch, Rea and Littler.

The suspension of rules procedure was changed to require a four-fifths instead of a two-thirds vote of the council.

KILLED BY MEXICANS?

Federal agents may investigate the death of Julius C. Johnson, former bookkeeper for Outcast Advertising Co., in an obscure rooming house in Watertown, Wis. His friends and fiancée, Mrs. Gertrude Fahrveiking, believe he was killed by Mexicans as a result of a plot. Johnson formerly kept a hotel in Chihuahua City and was driven from there. He has been in constant fear of death, say his friends.
